Interview questions for teaching assistants and answers

7) Are you a team player?

Yes, definitely. While I will deny the fact that I can work independently with minimal supervision, I'm also one companion every leader would ever wanted to be in his team. Whatever task is assigned to me, I make sure it meets and exceeds what is expected of me. I also make it a point to reach out to teammates whenever needed.

8) Why should we hire you?

For this particular job I have the perfect combination of skills and qualification that is required. I also bring strong analytical and problem-solving skills that I have developed over the years. I also attended many training programs and exhibited my skills and appreciated by the trainers. My dedication to excellent work standards and my attitude to convert positive into negative will add value to the company.

9) What is your philosophy towards work?

I have only one philosophy when it comes to work: every piece of work, regardless of size, has to be done on time and in the right manner.

10) What have you learned from the mistakes on the job?

I learned that without proper coordination, even the simplest task could cause problems in a project. Proper cooperation and coordination along with the team is also necessary for the continuous success.

11) Describe your management style.

Basically, my management style comes with promptness and flexibility. To make sure goals are achieved, I religiously study and make plans down to the smallest detail. While I do implement a strict sense of being time bounded, I also add reasonable allowances and make room for contingencies.

12) How would you know you were successful on this job?

Being successful means goals that are set are met. I derive success through proper planning, preparation and execution time by time, I do self-evaluation and count my steps.

13) Are you willing to work overtime? Nights? Weekends?
I understand that being asked to work for an extended number of hours comes with a good reason in the first place, so I'm ok with it. It an extra effort means something for the company, I'll be happy to do it.

Teaching is always my interest since I started my education. I am always been a good student with good grades throughout my schooling. I have good flair for science subjects and languages. The ambition to be a teacher has grown all along with me and it has been further stronger now. This is the reason to apply for your teaching program. I love children and I can understand their needs while taking up study at very younger age. My love for children is definitely another reason to have ambition to be a teacher too. I knew it well the better interaction with children can instill reasonable interest in them for studies. I always feel like being a right teacher for these children, who deserve more attention and care while studying.

I have good experience in teaching too, which acquired along with my schooling. Currently, I am working as a part-time teacher in a play school too. I am doing this part time job for almost a year and helping children to groom themselves as better students. My schooling and this little experience strengthening my desire to be a teacher to a great extent. Definitely, your teaching program will help me to groom me as a best teacher and to be supportive for the students for excelling well at academic side. I am very much eager to acquire professional perspective to my teaching side with the help of your teaching program.

My schooling and acquired good grades can inform more about my sincerity towards education and my sincerity towards education is mainly to fulfil my ambition to be a teacher. During schooling too, I exposed myself with so many volunteering activities in order to be close with other children and to understand their needs well. I volunteered as assistant at "badgers", which is junior section St. John Ambulance. My duty as badger is to look after children, entertain them and help them to follow well with their courses. I enjoyed well this experience, which gave me more scope to understand the children and their woes being students for first time.

I have proper qualification and experience to take up your teaching program and studying in your prestigious institute will help me to reach my professional goals well too. I sincerely request you to consider my candidature to take up the program.
